

2002 Legislative Survey Results

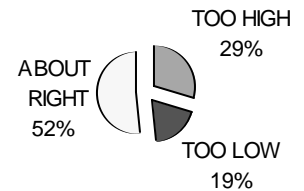

The following results from the survey were compiled from the response of citizens in Senate District 42.

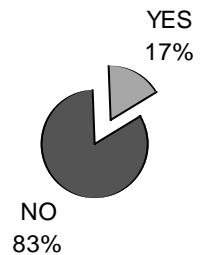

1) The O'Bannon Tax Restructuring Plan was explained on the reverse side of the survey card. When asked if the Legislature should adopt this plan as proposed, these were the results:

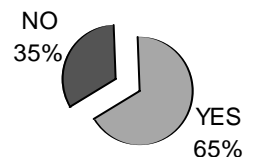

2) When asked if you thought the amount of tax dollars being spent on local K-12 public education was (a) too high, (b) too low, or (c) about right:

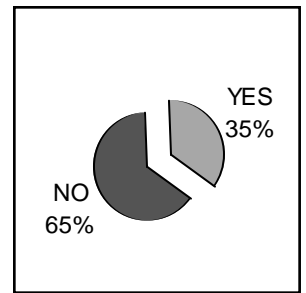

3) When asked if you favored state ownership of electricity-generating power plants:

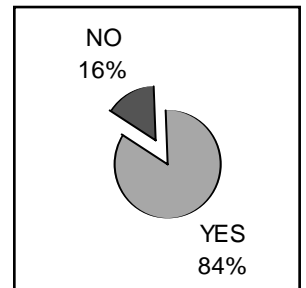

4) When asked if Indiana should permit "flexible boarding," which would eliminate the current two-hour gambling sessions on river boat casinos and allow patrons to come and go at any time:

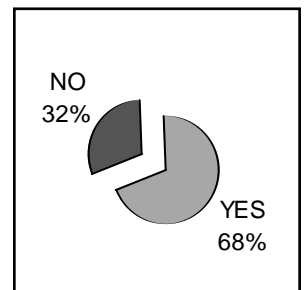

5) When asked if Indiana should use tax dollars for the development of a high-speed passenger rail network connecting Indiana to other Midwestern states:

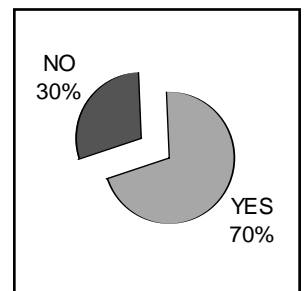

6) When asked if you support a law which would limit future state spending increases to no more than 1 percent more than inflation:

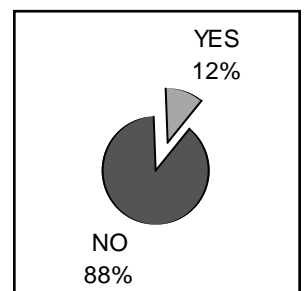

7) When asked if the state tax system should be “restructured” to decrease our reliance upon local property taxes by raising state income and sales taxes:

8) When asked if Indiana’s funds from the tobacco settlement, which currently are set aside for anti-smoking and other health-related activities, should be diverted to help the state through its fiscal crisis:

9) When asked if the state sales tax should be expanded to cover most services as well as products:

10) When asked if the state should allow local communities to install cameras near the highway and street intersections to photograph vehicles running red lights:
